International Symposium on Robotics 2025 (ISR Asia)

ISR Asia

The 58th International Symposium on Robotics (ISR 2025) will be held on November 5~6, 2025 at Goyang, Korea. The ISR is a conference on industrial and service robotics sponsored by the International Federation of Robotics. The symposium unites experts from the scientific, technical and industrial field who discuss ideas in robotics.

ISR Asia 2025 is organized by Korea Association of Robot industry(KAR) and takes place in conjunction with ROBOTWORLD 2025, one of the leading international robot exhibitions in Asia-pacific and the world. This year marks the 20th anniversary of the show.

Topics of the Symposium include but are not limited to

- ▶ Artificial Intelligence Systems
- ▶ Robot Mechanism and Control
- ▶ Robot Vision
- ▶ Human-Robot Interaction
- ▶ Autonomous Mobile Robotics
- ▶ AI & Smart Automation
- ▶ Motion Control & Conveyance
- ▶ Automation Safety
- ▶ Exoskeletal Robot
- ▶ Robotic Applications
- ▶ Autonomous Vehicle Systems
- ▶ Navigation
- ▶ Collaborative Robotics
- ▶ Machine Vision
