

Title: Call for Participation - World Robot Summit 2018

Dear all,

We are glad to announce that a new robotics competition—World Robot Summit (WRS) 2018—will be held in October, 2018 at Tokyo Big Sight, Tokyo, Japan. WRS 2018 has total nine various challenges in four categories, such as, Industrial Robotics, Service Robotics, Disaster Robotics, and Junior (for the students under 19 years old) to compete for robotics technology.

The winning teams will be granted an award money, and some participating teams may receive a certain amount of travel expenses support and so on. (Note: travel expenses support is subject to examination by judging committee).

The registration for the participation is now open at WRS website <http://worldrobotsummit.org/en/>. The closing day is March 15, 2018 (February 28, 2018 for Disaster Robotics Category).

We are looking forward to your participation.
